

British Values

The Rule of Law

Democracy

Individual Liberty

Mutual Respect

Tolerance of Those With:

- Different faiths
- Different beliefs

British Values

We respect the culture and beliefs of others.

British Values

We treat everybody equally.

British Values

We listen to and respect other people's opinions and values.

The Roma community

Roma

- Did you know that the Roma are originally a Hindi people from northern India?

Roma

- Did you know that the Roma people left northern India about 1,500 years ago?

Roma

- Did you know that many of the words and grammatical rules of the Romani language are virtually identical to those of the Hindi language?

Roma

- Did you know that some European countries such as Bulgaria, Romania, Russia, Slovakia, Hungary, Serbia, Spain and France have large Roma populations?

Roma

- Did you know that there are Romani populations on every occupied continent?

Roma

- Did you know that there are about 12 million Roma worldwide?

Roma

- Did you know that Roma have adopted the religions of their host countries?

Roma

- Did you know that the first Roma children (around 20) joined Montem 16 years ago?

Roma

- Did you know that nowadays there are 81 Roma children at Montem?

Roma

- Did you know that Roma children are very good at singing, dancing and languages?

Roma

- Now it's your turn. Have you got any facts about your Roma friends?

The End