

needed to pay their rents so they committed<sup>sp</sup> a crime, because of that they wanted to blame the wolf.

To summarise, it is clear that the pigs have struggled with their mortgage due to their money problems. They have explained how sorry they are to his family and friends for their actions. In contrast, the evidence proves that Mr wolf was innocent and had not tried to murder the pigs at all: he had asthma. Therefore, they should go to jail for at least four years.
They must learn their lesson: they should be found guilty.

Great work Wiktor! 😊

I can see you tried hard to keep your argument balanced.

Well done for using colons, a range of conjunctions and the present perfect tense.

sp committed committed commiled committ ed